Weeks of September 17th & 23rd

The Bible Challenge

Week of September 17

This week, we will be 2/3 of our way through the Bible Challenge year (and more than 2/3 through the Bible). There aren't any new books this week, but keep up the great work!

Here is this week's schedule:

Monday: Jeremiah 13-15; Psalm 51; Hebrews 7

Tuesday: Jeremiah 16-18; Psalm 52; Hebrews 8

Wednesday: Jeremiah 19-21; Psalm 53; Hebrews 9

Thursday: Jeremiah 22-24; Psalm 54; Hebrews 10

Friday: Jeremiah 25-27; Psalm 55; Hebrews 11

Saturday: Jeremiah 28-30; Psalm 56; Hebrews 12

Sunday: See you in church!

Week of September 23

This week, we will once again have the experience of hearing a passage of scripture in church, and then reading the entire book later in the week. We will start the Letter of James on Tuesday. As you may have noticed, James is much more interested in what we today would call social justice than many of the other letters we have read. He proclaims that faith leads to action, or that "faith without works is dead."

Here is this week's schedule:

Monday: Jeremiah 31-33; Psalm 57; Hebrews 13

Tuesday: Jeremiah 34-36; Psalm 58; James 1

Wednesday: Jeremiah 37-39; Psalm 59; James 2

Thursday: Jeremiah 40-42; Psalm 60; James 3

Friday: Jeremiah 43-45; Psalm 61; James 4

Saturday: Jeremiah 46-48; Psalm 62; James 5

Sunday: see you in church!
